

Friends of the Library

The Queens Borough
Public Library

Richmond Hill Branch
118-14 Hillside Avenue
Richmond Hill, NY 11418
718/849-7150

Contact: Kay Carpenter, VP, FRHL
718-805-5500

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AN EVENING OF MUSIC AND SONG AT RICHMOND HILL LIBRARY

An Evening of Music and Song will be held on Monday evening, June 13, at 6:30 PM in the Richmond Hill Library Auditorium, 118-14 Hillside Avenue (enter through driveway on Babbage Street). The evening which is sponsored by the Friends of the Richmond Hill Library, will include popular and classical selections and will feature singer Victor Starsky and William Thomas Smiddy, pianist.

Mr. Starsky is making his second appearance at the Richmond Hill Library. He first sang there at 5 years old. He has been hailed as "a brilliant performer who delights the audience with his rich voice and signature interpretations".

Mr. Smiddy is an internationally renowned pianist and any opportunity to hear him play should not be missed. "His remarkable combination of talent, musical imagination and communication evokes emotional responses from all who hear him".

(more)

Seating for this event is limited. Registering in person at the Library or by phone, 718-849-7150, is strongly advised.

What a wonderful, relaxing way to spend an evening! Not only will there be beautiful music, it's "in our own back yard."

#